Election Called.

Chief Justice Hazelrigg gave out a proclamation Tuesday ordering a special election for Governor on November 6.

The proclamation reads as follows: "There being a vacancy in the office of Governor of the Cemmonwealth, an election to fill same is hereby called for Tnesday, November 6, 1900. Officials charged with duties touching elections will govern themselves accordingly. Done at Frankfort, Ky., this September

JAS. H. HAZELRIGG, Chief Justice."

Croker's Opinion.

Richard Croker, of New York, made the following predictions the . t ier day: "They can't beat Bryan ii they spend from the trusts ten million dollars. They can't buy this election. I feel it in my bones that it will be a sweep for Bryan. It will not be close. Bryan will carry New York, Maryland, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and other Western States. He wil. get more electoral votes than Cleveland got in '92. The workingmen are not fools. They know that these gigantic trusts will soon root them out of everything comfortable in life. Their only hope is in Bryan, and I know that they are for him all over the Union. He is an honest man and a great man and the people believe in him

Mr. R. C. Talbott's Bill.

(Danville News.)

THE election law suggested by a resident of Bourbon county, is the best thing that has been suggested and, as far as we can see, has only one objectionable feature. He proposes to do away with all conventions and primaries, and place every man's name on a ticket who wishes to run; the party Harrison, one buck and two ewes for $38. receiving the highest number of votes secures the office, and the candidate of such party receiving the highest number is elected. This will do away with conventions and primaries, which are the fruitful source of nearly all political Presbyterian parsonage. ills. It will do away with rings and machines and will make the election truly popular and representative, as the mau elected would most surely be the choice of the majority of the people. The one bad feature would be the size of the ballot.
